

Holiday Pet Ideas

Dr. Leah Garlan

It's that time of year again! To make this holiday shopping season easier, I have put together a variety of gifts to spoil your pets this holiday season.

PAMPER YOUR POOCH!!!

*DAY AT THE SPA

Treat your best friend to a day at the groomers. There's nothing better than a fluffy & clean dog. If your dog is older or you don't have the time, mobile groomers are available right at your doorstep.

*GIVE THE GIFT OF HEALTH

A great gift for dogs of all ages but is especially great for older dogs with achy joints. As winter approaches cold weather affects their movement and slippery surfaces make them prone to falling. Chiropractic adjustments, acupuncture and massage are great alternative options.

*HIRE A PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHER or ARTIST

There are great photographers and artists all over the city and many times they are at special animal events. A beautiful photograph, album or portrait of your animal will be enjoyed by many and will be cherished forever.

*STOCKING STUFFERS

*New Dog Collar and Leash
Balls and Toys
Healthy dog bones and chewies
Grooming Products*

*NEW DOGGIE BED

Plush beds that your dog will love! I never met a dog that doesn't love a new dog bed plus it's healthy to get rid of old ones from time to time.

*GOURMET DOG TREATS

Healing Heart Organic dog treats are made from 100% organic ingredients.

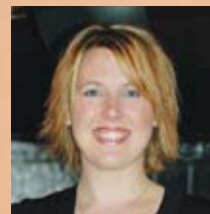

Buy them pre-made or buy the ingredients and make it fun for the whole family. Find these and many more at www.landofpuregold.com

*PICTURE FRAMES, MAGNETS & MEMORIES

Milkshake Crafts is now offering custom made picture frames, magnets and wall squares. You can give these as a gift or buy them to honor all the pets in your family. Also offering new memorial custom frames to remember the pets no longer here with you. Visit www.milkshake-crafts.com

The most important part of the holiday season is to spend time loving your pets. If you're busy entertaining this holiday season, make sure to give your animals some quiet time to adjust to all the added excitement.

Wishing you and your family a safe and enjoyable Holiday Season.
